

I believe the Federal laws governing "no calls" are sufficient.
Wisconsin law creates additional burden on banks and prevents them from serving their customers adequately.